Matt Stevens

Grassroots Director
C-Licence

Born in Blackburn, Lancashire England, Matt moved to Canada when he was 16 in 1998. Matt's playing career took off from there, playing for Alberta from 1999-2001. Matt also played for the Calgary Selects in the Premier Division in Calgary at 16 years old and went on to play in the Alberta Major League between 2001 and 2015 with various clubs.

Matt's accomplishments grew from there playing central defender, where he made the Alberta Major League All-Star team in 2002. Matt officially retired last year with Rangers FC and has since focused on coaching where he's obtained his National C license and is aiming to complete his children's license next, and then his National B license.
